Not on your life—at least not as long as the Editor of The Democrat is at large.

Now that the election is about over, The Democrat tries to remark that it came out of the straits with the loss of only two subscribers.

This is not the first time a newspaper has lost a subscriber for telling the truth; but it is probably the first instance on record where a paper has suffered for telling the truth about the truth.

There are few ailments so uncomfortable as piles, but they can be easily cured by using The Buckeye Pile Ointment.

Everybody Get Ready For the Great Mid-winter Tobacco Exhibition.

The Committee will call on our citizens this week to solicit money for the purpose of making the Tobacco Fair a grand success.

The date is Saturday, January 20th, 1900. Premiums will be offered on all grades.

The Board of Trade invites all the citizens of Maysville to this very important moment.

A special invitation is extended to all newspapermen to attend the Maysville Tobacco Fair.

Given Saturday Evening at the McClure House Near Springfield.

Saturday, December 24, Miss Savannah McClure of near Springfield was 19 years of age, and in response to cordial invitations from her parents, some of the friends of Miss Savannah met at her home and with laughter and song wished her a happy return of birthday, and passed the evening with her.

The guests came with marked faces and queer costumes, and it was really amusing to look around and view the different "outrif." One young man did not even know his own sister to whom he talked for half an hour.

After a season of fruitless endeavor to identify others of the company, the hostess fair and smiling, announced supper, and with unmarked and smiling faces, the party retired to the dining-room where the table was beautifully spread.

After supper a season of vocal and innocent games completed the evening's program and the guests went home taking with them many pleasant memories and leaving behind them many well wishes.

THE COMMONWEALTH.

CONVANCING THE VOTE.

Fifty-One of the 119 Counties in the State Considered by the State Board of Election Commissioners.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 8.—Fifty-one counties were canvassed by the Kentucky state board of election commissioners Monday, out of a total of 119 in the state.

The counties passed over are Christian, Fleming, Green, Harlan and Harrison. The board met at 11:30 o'clock in the office of Secretary of State Finley.

"We are ready for the returns, Mr. Finley," said Judge Pryor.

"I am custodian of these returns," replied Mr. Finley, "and as such I prefer to keep them in my own hands. I do not mean that the board would for an instant misuse them, but as they are in my charge, and I am responsible for them, I can not give them up, except as they are required by the board."

"They are the property of the board, Mr. Finley," replied Mr. Ellis, "and the board has all the right in the world to have them one by one or all at once, as it may elect. I am willing that you should be joint custodian of the records while they are in the possession of the board, but I consider even that a concession on the part of the board."

"I must decline to hand them over," was Mr. Finley's reply. "And request leave to consult with my legal adviser."

Mr. Ellis waived his hand in assent, and after a short talk with Augustus Wilson, of Louisville, the attorney representing the Republicans, Mr. Finley turned around remarking:

"I will waive the point Mr. Ellis, here are the returns," and he handed them out.

"I am satisfied the only argument that occurred during the day, and it was practically without bitterness or discourtesy on either side."

Once begun, the canvass went on rapidly. It is counties being disposed of when the board adjourned at 1 o'clock for dinner. It reconvened at 2:30, and within three hours 38 counties, including the five that were passed, were canvassed. The board met again at 5:20 Tuesday morning.

It will probably take the board the greater part of Tuesday to canvass the returns of the remaining counties, and it will then resolve itself into a canvassing board, adjourn to the large hall in which the legislative meets, and for a time local fireworks will be in order. The real work that will count for the election of Goebel or Taylor will begin then, and every inch will be fought fiercely by both sides.

Dewey killed, Maysville, Ky., Herald. MATTIE, Ky., Dec. 8.—Fire Monday destroyed the Dewey block on Eighth and Broadway and eight store rooms. The fire broke out in a laundry building and spread rapidly to the other buildings. Loss, $60,000; insurance, $15,000.

Met their death in Mollen Metal. MIDDLEBORO, Ky., Dec. 8.—The holding of furnace No. 1 gave way Monday, precipitating the entire molten mass on the laborers. Monroe Smiler and Washburn Banks were burnt to a crisp before their bodies could be gotten out.

Shooting at a Country Dance. RICHMOND, Ky., Dec. 8.—At a Negro dance near Paduca, this county, Harland Ellison, colored, shot William Woodson, white, through the neck, inflicting a probably fatal wound. The would-be murderer escaped.

Two Laborers Hanged to a Crisp. MINNAPOLIS, Ky., Dec. 8.—The holding of furnace No. 1 gave way Monday, precipitating the entire molten mass on the laborers. Monroe Smiler and Washburn Banks were burnt to a crisp.

Refused to Accept Another Position. LEXINGTON, Ky., Dec. 8.—Albert Griggs, division superintendent Cincinnati Southern road, located at Somerset, Ky., resigned to accept a position with Chicago and Alton at Chicago.

THE BUYERS' GUIDE

GRAND OPENING

OF CHRISTMAS NOVELTIES!

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 6, 1899,

Is our Reception Day. From a bower of roses and palms a famous orchestra will discourse sweet music all day long.

Souvenirs of Flowers for all Lady Visitors! Everyone is cordially invited to attend this reception. 8 a. m. until 10 p. m. Wednesday, December 6th, 1899.

An intimate acquaintance with the good people of Mason and surrounding counties has taught me that "There is nothing too good for them," and I have brought to Maysville the most elegant stock of Holiday Furniture ever exhibited in any town of less than 100,000 inhabitants.

In fact Eastern traveling men openly state that these goods would do credit to any city. Having spent seven months collecting this stock of novelties, during which time I have searched all of America and part of Europe, I feel that I am entitled to some consideration at your hands.

Not being of a very bashful nature I have no hesitancy in asking you for what I feel is due me, namely, that you take one day off and inspect this superb stock of Holiday Furniture and Novelties. I devoted seven months to gathering these novelties to Maysville; surely you can devote one day to an inspection of them. You will find that the time will pass pleasantly; delightful music will rest and soothe you when the eyes are tired feasting upon the beautiful novelties gathered from many Eastern cities and foreign climes; sweet scented flowers will rest the mind while the tired body reclines in easy Turkish chairs; affable salesmen will answer all inquiries concerning quality and price without attempting to consummate a sale. Let it be distinctly understood that no attempt will be made to consummate a sale of any article upon this day. If you purchase it will be your own fault. No effort will be made to sell you, for this is our RECEPTION DAY, and we desire only what we ask, viz., YOUR PRESENCE.

Retrospective: A little less than two years ago we appeared in your midst with a new plan—a new method of doing business. A cynical public and indignant competitors stood amazed when we announced our intention of selling Furniture and Farm Implements for cash at one price to all and that price just 10 per cent. above what the article cost in carload lots. We hoisted our 10-per-cent.-for-cash flag and the fight was on. Competition was indignant over the fact that a stranger would dare to interfere with their old-time war profits. A cynical public doubted our integrity; friendly manufacturers doubted our ability to exist upon a profit of 10 per cent., and the battle went merrily on.

THE TRUTH IS MIGHTY AND WILL PREVAIL.

If there is a man, woman or child now today in five counties that does not know and realize that The Price Fighter is in Maysville and Brooksville selling Furniture and Machines at 10 per cent. profit I would like to have his photograph. The Price Fighter has fulfilled every promise, and defies anyone to deny this fact. Speak out now or forever afterwards hold your peace. Thanking you one and all for your many kind words said in my behalf, I remain your friend,

JOHN I. WINTER, The Price Fighter.

FLOTSAM—JETSAM—LIGAN!

NEWLY NOTED FROM NATURE'S GREAT HIGHWAY.

The Spillman with Kanawha empties passed up.

Navigation on the Upper Ohio is "suspiciously" some more.

There is a slight decline in the river at this point since last evening.

The Avalon from Kanawha passed down with a good trip for Louisville.

The boilers of the "Bluff City," burned recently at Chester, have been a overed.

The Virginia from Pittsburgh passed down this morning for the bank at Cincinnati.

The Charles H. Pearce and Courier are still attending to the Portsmouth-Cincinnati business.

If guano rises at Pittsburgh produced big rivers, the Ohio would have been at flood tide all year.

New lock gates have been built at the Government's repair shop at Charleston for Lock No. 1, on the Monongahela river. New gates are being built for the other locks.

It is now reasonably sure that no Pittsburgh coal will arrive at New Orleans this year, which has now but little over four weeks to run. The receipt there of Alabama coal will prevent anything like a famine.

Captain John A. Wood says that Duff is the worst place on the Ohio river. He says that if similar improvements were made at Duff as have been made at the traps at Sewickley, they would greatly improve the channel.

The Sweeney Brothers Boat Yard Company laid the keel and head block for a new large steel tugboat. The keel draft is to be 16 feet long, 35 feet wide, and of 4 feet depth. She will be the property of the United States, to be used in the Arkansas river.

In the wood department at Howard's there are two low line boats, the New Boston and two coal boats on the water and two big water boats for coal. The water is in the water. There, with the steel work on hand, will keep the big forces busy until cold weather sets in.

The City of Jeffersonville is using a fog horn temporarily while her old whistle is being repaired. The fog horn is being used. It served the John Shallock and New Shallock all their lives, and has served the City of Jeffersonville the part of the eight years and consequently deserves sinking up.

No investigation of the charges preferred at Washington by George C. Fisher, President of the National Marine Engineers' Association, against certain Pittsburgh steamers, for carrying an excess of steam, has been ordered, but it is expected that Major Crobaugh will be ordered to Pittsburgh to do so.

The Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company will not diminish its motive power, but will probably increase it. The boats owned by the company will be rebuilt where it is found practicable, and if it is only necessary to repair them, they will be done. All of the boats will receive such repairs as are necessary. The tide is now being practically rebuilt at Elizabeth, and the Alice Brown will be the next boat to be given a similar rebuilding. It is probable that several new towboats will be built for the company during the coming spring, for the river coal tonnage of the Ohio is increasing annually.

STATE OF OHIO, CITY OF TOLEDO, ss. I, Frank J. Cheney, make oath that I am the senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, county and state aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of Hall's Catarrh Cure.

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence this 8th day of December, A. D. 1888.

"BLOODIEST BATTLE."

Modder River Is Nowhere Near the Head of the List.

FUGGERS WORTH PRESERVING.

New York Sun.

An unauthenticated cable dispatch from London printed here contained a statement that a message sent by General Methuen to Queen Victoria said that the Modder River battle was the bloodiest of the century. It is not probable that General Methuen said any such thing, unless, possibly, he spoke with reference to the losses in comparison with the total number of men engaged. No report of the losses has reached the public yet.

As the number of those engaged was only about 5,000, according to the British reports, and General Methuen is in command of only one division of the British Army sent to the Transvaal, no battle between those forces could have been the bloodiest of the century unless the slaughter of both armies was complete.

In the BATTLE OF AUSTERLITZ, December 2, 1805, the French lost 1,000 officers and men, and the killed and wounded of the allies numbered more than 3,000.

The French losses at Bautzen in 1813 were 15,000, and at Wagram in 1809 they took 20,000, although in that battle they took 20,000 prisoners.

At the Moscow, on the retreat from Moscow, they lost 30,000.

At the great Battle of Leipzig, in 1813, a three-day battle, the French losses were 60,000. More than 40,000 of the French perished on the field; altogether 80,000 men perished on the field.

At WATERLOO the British lost 6,000, the French 25,000. The losses of the allied armies there were 4,000 killed and 14,500 wounded, besides 4,500 missing.

In the last great attack on Sebastopol, September 8th, 1855, the French lost 1,546 killed and 4,500 wounded, besides 1,400 missing, and the British lost 250 killed, 1,200 wounded and 175 missing. At Plevna between 18,000 and 20,000 Russians were killed and wounded, the Turkish loss being about 5,000 less than the Russian. About 16,000 men were killed on both sides.

In the war between Germany and Austria, in 1866, the Prussians lost 9,172 and the Austrians 43,714 at Koniggratz; at Naebach the Prussians 1,322 and the Austrians 4,757; at Skalitz the Prussians 1,303 and the Austrians 5,577.

In the FRANCO-PRUSSIAN WAR the Germans at Weissenburg-Worth lost 15,914 and the French 5,000 killed and wounded, besides which the French lost 50,000 prisoners.

At Vionville-Mars in 1870, the Germans lost 16,796, or 82 per cent. of their army; the French loss being equally great.

The Germans at Colaba-Nouilly lost 4,907, and at Spikera 4,751.

At Gravelotte-St. Privat the German loss, according to a German authority, was 20,373. Another authority puts it at 25,000, and the French loss at 19,000.

At Sedan the Germans lost 5,031. The French army of the North consisted of 130,000 men and the three armies of Germany of 250,000 men in that three-day battle, in which 20,000 French were taken prisoners.

IN THE CIVIL WAR the aggregate losses at the Battle of Stone River were 12,369 on the Union side and 10,000 on the Confederate side. These figures include killed, wounded, captured and missing. The Union killed were 1,750 and the Confederate 1,254.

At Antietam the Union killed numbered 5,700, the wounded 9,569.

At the first Bull Run Battle 470 Union men were killed and 1,071 were wounded, the Confederate figures being 307 killed and 1,530 wounded.

At Fredericksburg 1,284 Union men were killed and 506 Confederate, the wounded numbering 9,000 on the Union side and 4,000 on the Confederate. The total losses at this battle were 15,669 for the North and 5,513 for the South.

Five hundred were killed on the Union side at Fort Donelson and 400 on the side of the South, the wounded numbering respectively 1,300 and 1,350. The South lost in captured and missing 15,000 and the North 200.

In the two-day Battle of Shiloh the Northern dead numbered 1,704 and the Southern 4,012.

At Fair Oaks 790 Northern men and 900 Southern were killed, the Northern losing 10,000 and the South 4,749.

At Gettysburg the Union losses in killed were 3,070, wounded 14,497, and the Confederate 3,600 dead, 12,700 wounded.

The killed in the Union Army at the Wilderness numbered 3,261; wounded, 12,077. This, like that of Gettysburg, is a three-day's record, and the figures for Chancellorsville, one day longer, are: Union dead, 1,800; wounded, 8,700; Confederate, 1,400 and 9,000 respectively.

Have you a cold? A dose of Cassell's Honey of Tar at bedtime will remove it. Price 25 cts. and 50 cts. J. James Wood & Son.

BATTLE OF THE "BILLS."

They Really Seem to Have Seized Kentucky By the Umbilical.

Brookridge County News.

Bill Goebel introduced a bill the Kentucky Legislature called the Goebel Bill. Bill Goebel and Bill Goebel looked horns in a terrific contest before the Democratic State Convention for the gubernatorial nomination. Bill Goebel cheered lustily and in charged with using greenback bills. Politicians with bills and watermelon with bills do not carry the day for Goebel. Bill Taylor was the republican choice, and a heated contest was begun. Bill Goebel sulked in his tent while Bill Taylor looked on with a scornful smile.

Bill Goebel came to the arena and made speeches for the free silver principle at a lost hour, of one hundred dollar bill per speech. Bill Owens and Bill Sweeney ousted Bill Goebel from the stump and Bill Brookridge were ready to editorialize in the Lexington newspaper. On election day Bill Bradley called out the "fables" and Bill Taylor got a majority of the votes. Bill Deane went to Washington and had a conference with Bill McKinley on the situation.

Bill Pryor and Bill Ellis now have the final counting of the vote, and one dollar bill is freely put on both Bill Taylor and Bill Goebel. The Republicans promise to introduce a bill in the next Legislature to repeal the present election bill. These look like no end to it.

Any adult suffering from a cold settled on the throat, bronchitis, throat or lung troubles of any nature, who will call at J. C. Peck's Druggists will be presented with a sample bottle of Brocher's German Strych free of charge. Only one bottle given to one person, and none to children without order from parents.

No throat or lung remedy ever sold such a sale as Brocher's German Strych in all parts of the civilized world. Twenty years ago millions of bottles were given away, and our druggist will tell you its success was marvellous. It is really the only Throat and Lung Remedy generally endorsed by physicians. The 10-cent bottle will cure or prove its value. Sold by dealers in all civilized countries.

As a cure for rheumatism Chamberlain's Pain Balm is gaining a wide reputation. D. B. Johnson of Richmond, Ind., has been troubled with that ailment since 1861. In speaking of it he says: "I never found anything that would relieve me until I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It sets like magic with me. My foot was swollen and painful very much, but one good application of Pain Balm relieved me. For sale by J. J. Wood & Son, Druggists."

A SURE CURE FOR CROUP.

Twenty-Five Years' Constant Use Without a Failure.

The first indication of croup is hoarseness, and is a child subject to that disease it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the coughy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is used in many thousands of homes in this broad land and never disappoints the anxious mother. We have yet to learn of a single instance in which it has not proved effective. No other preparation can show such a record—twenty-five years' constant use without a failure. For sale by J. J. Wood & Son, Druggists.
